Remarks

Welcome to 28920 Appleblossom Lane, a distinctive 4-bedroom, 2.5-bath residence with a full finished basement offering both sophistication and comfort. Nestled on a serene, tree-lined suburban street, this home enjoys a private wooded setting while remaining close to shopping, dining, parks, and cultural attractions in Farmington Hills. Inside, you'll find thoughtfully designed spaces that balance style and function. The kitchen, complete with a bar and casual dining area, is ideal for everyday meals or evening gatherings. A formal dining room sets the stage for entertaining, while the office/library provides a quiet space for reading or remote work. The spacious laundry room adds convenience, and the fully finished basement expands your living options perfect for recreation, fitness, or guest accommodations. Step outside onto the expansive deck, where mature trees create a serene backdrop for outdoor entertaining, grilling, or simply relaxing in nature. Living in Farmington Hills means access to more than 600 acres of public parks, extensive trails, year-round recreation, and a vibrant cultural scene, including museums, art, and community events. Its central location also offers convenient access to major business centers and nearby metropolitan amenities. Combining generous living
